FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

ROBERT SANDOVAL,

Plaintiff,

v.

LIFECCELL CORPORATION, et al.,

Defendants.

No. 2:21-CV-17705-BRM-LDW

CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER NO. 10
STIPULATED DEFENDANT
STREAMLINING ORDER

---

APPLIES TO:

ALL RELATED CASES

---

This Court hereby issues the following Case Management Order:

I. Scope of this Order

1. By stipulation, the parties have agreed to enter into this Stipulated Defendant Streamlining Order which shall govern all cases currently on file in this coordinated proceeding, as well as any newly filed related cases that may be filed in this coordinated proceeding.

2. Plaintiffs have sued various entities regarding claims arising out of Strattice hernia mesh, including but not limited to LifeCell Corporation, Allergan USA, Inc., Allergan, Inc., and Abbvie Inc. (the “Named Defendants”).

3. Counsel for Defendants represent the Named Defendants and have the authority to enter into this Stipulated Order on behalf of those corporate entities.

4. It is the intent of the Stipulated Order to streamline this litigation by identifying the current Defendants and related corporate entities that will be dismissed from and/or not named as parties in current and future actions filed in this Court (“Agreed Dismissed Entities”), and those which will be identified as named Defendants in current and future actions filed in this Court (“Remaining Entities”).

5. The Parties stipulate and agree that the Agreed Dismissed Entities are AbbVie Inc. and Allergan, Inc. Remaining Entities are LifeCell Corporation and Allergan USA, Inc.

6. In any cases where Agreed Dismissed Entities have been named as parties, they shall be dismissed without prejudice pursuant to the Stipulation and Order Dismissing Defendants AbbVie Inc. and Allergan, Inc. (attached as Exhibit A). All undersigned counsel for the associated matters listed in Exhibit A have consented to the dismissal without prejudice of the Agreed Dismissed Entities.

7. Upon entry of this Order, Exhibit A shall be entered in the master case for this consolidated proceeding, Sandoval v. LifeCell Corporation, et al., Case No. 2:21-CV-17705-BRM-LDW and all associated matters identified in Exhibit A.

8. In any current or future cases where Agreed Dismissed Entities have not been named as parties, it is expressly understood that one of the purposes of this Stipulated Order is to negate the need to name those entities as parties. Therefore, absent a showing as to their necessity as a party, Agreed Dismissed Entities should not be named as parties in any current or future cases.

9. If any plaintiff later seeks to amend his or her complaint to add Agreed Dismissed Entities, Agreed Dismissed Entities will not argue that such claim is untimely (i.e., that statutes of limitations, laches, and/or statutes of repose bars claims against them), except that Agreed Dismissed Entities may argue that the claim was untimely before the date the plaintiff filed his or her initial complaint, regardless of whether that complaint named any of the Agreed Dismissed Entities.

10. Defendants agree that the Remaining Entities have sufficient possession, custody, and control over responsive discovery such that the dismissal of the Agreed Dismissed Entities will have no bearing on the discovery in this case. In responding to discovery requests, counsel for Defendants shall also include all non-privileged documents and information in the possession and/or control of the Agreed Dismissed Entities. Counsel for Defendants shall not withhold documents from production on the basis that Agreed Dismissed Entities are not a named party and shall comply with discovery obligations as if Agreed Dismissed Entities are a party.

11. Defendants further agree the Remaining Entities have sufficient possession, custody, and control over witnesses such that the dismissal of the Agreed Dismissed Entities will have no bearing on the depositions in this case. In responding to requests to produce a witness for deposition and/or subpoena for deposition for any employee of Agreed Dismissed Entities, counsel for Defendants shall not refuse to produce a witness for deposition and/or refuse to accept service of process of any subpoena for deposition (and any duces tecum document requests) on the basis that the witness is an employee of an entity that is a non-party and shall comply with discovery obligations as if Agreed Dismissed Entities are a party.

12. Agreed Dismissed Entities agree to not object to the personal jurisdiction of this Court for the purposes of entry and enforcement of this Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Date: June 2, 2023
